

Youth Inspired is a provider of alternative education to young people aged 16-25 with learning difficulties and disabilities. Due to the expansion of our provision and the opening of our Adult Social Care offer we are now recruiting for the following roles:

Senior Support Worker

Hours: 32 hours per week

(Salary negotiable dependent on qualifications / experience)

£11.71 – £12.50 per hour

(38 weeks currently term-time only)

We are currently looking for an experienced senior level support worker with a Level 3 qualification in Health and Social Care to work in our newly established adult social care provision for those with additional needs.

You will be working with young people aged 16 and above, designing and delivering programme activities. This will include social activities engaging with young people around their hobbies and interests, arts and crafts and enterprise.

You will support and develop our clients' independent living skills, employment, and communication skills, to build confidence and self-esteem enabling our clients to reach their full potential.

Being a team player, able to lead support staff, is essential together with reporting and administrative skills.

Support Worker

Hours: 24 hours per week

(Salary negotiable dependent on qualifications / experience)

£9 - £10 per hour

(38 weeks currently term-time only)

We are expanding our team of staff supporting our new 'Inspired' provision and are looking for an experienced SEN Support Worker.

The successful applicant will have experience of working with young people with learning disabilities and moderate challenging behaviour, together with a desire to help them develop their social and independent living skills.

For both roles you will have experience of working in a busy social care environment with skills that match our provision.
